20 Years of Christmas Memories

20 Years of Christmas Memories

ach of us has that one special Christmas we will always remember. Maybe it was when you were newlyweds and spent your first Christmas in that cramped apartment or the year your first grandchild was the greatest gift of all.

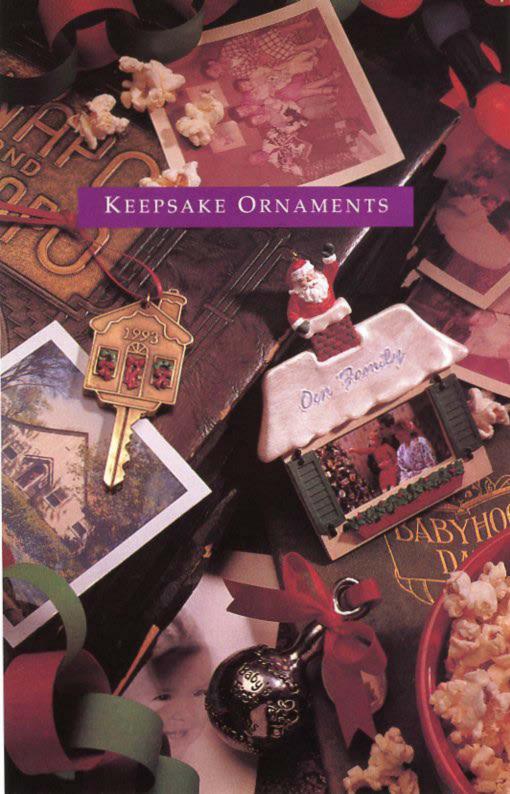

For 20 years now people have marked these special times with Keepsake Ornaments and made sure that their memories of them will never fade. Those moments you hold dear come back just like they were yesterday as you unpack and hang the ornaments each year. That's why we call them Keepsake Ornaments.

In recognition of our 20th anniversary, we've issued the four Anniversary Edition designs you see here. You'll find them at your local Hallmark store along with the rest of the 1993 Keepsake Ornaments. We invite you to stop in today and join us in celebrating 20 years of Christmas memories.

Travel back to a bygone era with the three tin ornaments we call Holiday Fliers. The propellers on all three really turn. Each ornament was carefully crafted by Linda Sickman, who has created many of our tin ornaments over the years.

If there's an avid angler, bowler or gardener on your Christmas list, here's the gift he or she will remember all year. You'll find designs inspired by these and other favorite pastimes in our lifestyles group.

oanne Pawelek won the grand prize in a costume contest at our Collector's Club convention. As her prize, we asked artist Donna Lee to create an ornament based on Joanne's favorite Christmas memories. The ornament reflects Ukrainian holiday traditions passed down to Joanne by her grandmother, who grew up in the Ukrainian region of the former Soviet Union. You can share in Joanne's special holiday memories with this
